

You're probably receiving dozens of leaflets through your door at the moment telling you to vote for this party or that party. They all want to talk to you now, but once the excitement has died down you won't hear from them again until the next time they want your vote.

I am your county councillor, and when I went knocking on doors a year ago and asked people who their existing Conservative county councillor was, 9 out of 10 people didn't have a clue who he was, or how to get hold of him. Since I was elected, I have worked hard to make sure that everyone in St James gets my FOCUS newsletter regularly, so they know who I am, what I am doing and how to get hold of me by email, text, phone, website, Twitter, Facebook or letter.

I have worked hard in this area running effective campaigns on getting derelict empty buildings sorted out, dealing with flytipping, parking and match day traffic problems; everything from drains to noisy motorbikes.

A lot of these are Borough council issues not county council issues, but I have always dealt with any problem that comes my way. That is why I am asking you to vote for me on July 3, so that I can have a stronger voice on the Borough council and get even more problems sorted out. And you WILL hear from me after the election, because I work for St James all year round, not just at election time.
